

QUEEN'S LAW

Access our Global Alumni Network

We are developing a Network of our alumni with experience living and working abroad. We would like to link alumni with international careers, and build stronger connections between our international alumni and our students and alumni who are interested in global aspects of legal study and practice. Our alumni can be found around the world, from Hong Kong to New York, from Dubai to London.

If you are interested connecting with a member of the Network to expand your professional contacts, learn more about a particular legal career, or gain insight into the current legal market in a particular geographic location, please complete the form below, and the Queen's Law Career Services Office will be in touch with you.

Your information will only be accessible to Faculty staff members, who will confirm your consent before referring you to a member of the Network.
