

ADVANCE PRAISE FOR TUG OF WAR

"This important book fills a huge gap in the literature for separating and divorcing couples. Written from the unique perspective of a family court judge, it offers practical information and sound advice to help families avoid heart-wrenching tugs of war over their children. In my opinion, every family law lawyer and mediator (and, indeed, every family court) should buy this book by the truckload and hand it out to every one of their clients — a very small price to pay for saving children from irreparable harm!"

"This book, the first of its kind written by an experienced sitting family court judge, contains invaluable and comprehensive information about the family justice system. The Honourable Mr. Justice Harvey Brownstone focuses his attention on parents going through or contemplating family court litigation, and he writes in a clear, concise, elegant, and easy-to-read style that demystifies complex legal principles and procedures. This is a thoughtful, heartfelt book with a generous touch of wisdom, providing tremendous insight into the impact and consequences of family court litigation. Readers will learn how to minimize the damage that can be caused to children who are caught in the middle of parental tugs of war. Simply put, this book is a 'must read!'"

JUSTICE HARVEY BROWNSTONE received his LL.B. degree from Queen's University in 1980. After working as a Legal Aid lawyer in the criminal courts, he joined the Legal Aid research facility, focussing primarily on Family Law. He then served as Director of the Family Support Plan at the Ontario Ministry of the Attorney General (now the Family Responsibility Office) responsible for enforcing child and spousal support orders. In 1995 he was appointed a provincial judge, and currently presides at the North Toronto Family Court.

All of the author's proceeds from the sale of this book are being donated to the Children's Wish Foundation and other children's charities.
