Orientation Program	Mandatory orientation session.
Buddies Program	The buddy system was created to enhance collaboration and friendships between Exchange students and Israeli students.
Course Registration	A Course Registration Form will be sent to the student together with the course list and the course description. Students will be pre-registered in courses.
Mandatory Course Load	Approximately 50 courses in English are offered per academic year. An exchange student can select up to 7 classes. Classes are 1-2 credits each. To sign up for more than 7 courses, the student needs a special permission from the director of the program. Please consult your university as to your own requirements of credits.
Credit system	1 credit point equals 13 academic hours. Each academic hour is composed of 45 minutes. Accordingly, a 1 credit class will meet for a total of 585 minutes. A class of 2 credit points equals 26 academic hours, i.e. 1,170 minutes.
Housing	Visiting students are required to find their own accommodation. The Buchmann Faculty of Law does not have on-campus housing and cannot guarantee a housing solution for visiting student because of the excessive demand and limited supply for on-campus housing.
Health Insurance	Students must show proof of health insurance in Israel before arrival.
Visa Information	Visiting students need to apply for a Student Visa prior to their arrival to Israel through the Israeli Consulate. Israeli citizen must contact the Israeli Consulate near you prior to arrival in order to validate your status in Israel.

Available Language Courses	Tel Aviv University offers an Intensive Hebrew Course for beginners (ULPAN) twice a year, in the summer and in the winter prior to the beginning of each semester. The Hebrew course is not part of the Exchange Student Program and is offered by TAU International for an extra fee. TAU International also offers beginners and advanced Hebrew courses during the academic year for an extra fee. For more information please refer to the website: http://international.tau.ac.il/ .
