Housing, Costs, Visas, Scholarships

Is on-campus housing offered?	A variety of room types and apartments are available including catered colleges, self-catered university apartments or privately run colleges on (or very close) to campus. University accommodation should be prearranged as places are limited. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Residential Communities accommodation includes very limited accommodation at the self-catered University Terraces and fully-catered Kensington Colleges. Information including fees, application form and deadline is sent to students after they have been accepted into the exchange program (http://www.rc.unsw.edu.au/) • UNSW also has 8 other affiliated Colleges and Apartments that provide high quality accommodation. You should apply directly to the College or Apartment as soon as early as possible. (http://www.accommodation.unsw.edu.au/content/affiliated-accommodation)
How do I find off-campus housing?	Many students choose to live off campus and enjoy the beautiful suburbs that surround UNSW. Sydney is a safe city, with public transport connecting the UNSW campuses, beaches, and city centre. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resources and advice (https://student.unsw.edu.au/accommodation) • We recommend you arrive 1-2 weeks early to find off campus accommodation. You may wish to book temporary accommodation (https://student.unsw.edu.au/accommodation-short-term) to allow time to find more permanent housing You should never arrange off-campus accommodation nor transfer money from overseas.
What are the approximate living costs?	We recommend around AUD $18,000 – AUD $21,000 for one year and AUD $9,000 – AUD $11,000 for one semester. (http://www.international.unsw.edu.au/living-sydney/cost-living) Note that this is for the basics and does not include holiday travel and entertainment costs.
Do exchange students have to have a particular insurance? If yes, what kind of insurance?	A student visa requires you to have Overseas Student Health Cover (http://www.health.gov.au/internet/main/publishing.nsf/Content/Overseas+Student+Health+Cover+FAQ-1) (OSHC) for its full duration (most students from Belgium, Norway and Sweden are exempt). OSHC is a government requirement and cannot be waived with off-shore health insurance and/or comprehensive travel insurance. The UNSW's preferred provider is Medibank. Further instructions are provided upon acceptance.

Are there any scholarships, stipend, living allowances etc. that I can apply for?	Unless the student/partner has been contacted with confirmation of a scholarship from UNSW, there are no other available funding opportunities.
Can I work on a student visa?	Student visas allow work once they have commenced their course at UNSW. You can work up to 40 hours a fortnight during session and unlimited hours when your course is not in session. UNSW Careers and Employment has a list of employment opportunities available for students and assist students with resumes and interview preparation. (http://www.careers.unsw.edu.au/)

Other Information

Are there any social activities for exchange students?	Yes, there are fee-paying social activities during the semester and mid-semester breaks that students can participate in.
Is there an airport pick up service?	Yes, this is a free service for students arriving the week leading up to Orientation. Details are sent to students once they have been accepted

We hope to welcome you to UNSW!
