

WELCOME FROM THE S.G.P.S. PRESIDENT

Welcome to all new (and returning) Queen's Law students!

As President of the Society of Graduate and Professional Students (SGPS), I'd like to offer my congratulations on being accepted into your program and welcome you to the broader community here at Queen's. As well as being members of the Law Student's Society (LSS), each of you is also a member of the SGPS. As such, we administer your Health and Dental plan, provide free ISIC cards, offer emergency bursaries, and other services. Our Student Advisors are available year round to offer advice and practical assistance on any personal, academic, financial, or administrative issue with complete confidentiality. We also organize numerous social and academic events throughout the year.

Queen's also prides itself on a high degree of student involvement in University affairs. For information about the role of students in University government, how to get involved in University affairs, or any other matter, please contact our VP Professional, Law student Kate Kahn, at vpp@sgps.ca.

For more information about SGPS services, campus resources, and events, please visit our Web site at www.sgps.ca. If you have any questions, please drop by our offices in the JDUC to speak with our Front Desk staff, or contact us at 613.533.2924 or info@sgps.ca.

I hope to meet many of you at our events, and wish you the best of luck in your studies!

With best wishes,

Jeff Welsh
