

QUEEN'S LAW STUDENTS' SOCIETY - SPIRIT AWARD

NOMINATION FORM

Please submit this form to Student Services Office, Macdonald Hall, Room 200, in a sealed envelope. Alternatively, the nomination can be scanned and sent as a pdf attachment by email to Margaret Moore at mdm1@queensu.ca. She will acknowledge receipt of the nomination.

The Spirit Award was established and approved by the Queen's Law Students' Society in 1983/84. For the terms of the awards and the procedures, please see the L.S.S. Constitution and Bylaws at http://law.queensu.ca/students/lss/Constitution/LSS_Constitution.pdf.

The Queen's Law Students' Society Spirit Award shall be presented annually to a student in his/her graduating year who has best and most contributed to the spirit of the Law School.

The selection committee will consider

- (a) readiness to participate in Law School activities,
 - (b) readiness to volunteer assistance where assistance is needed
- and
- (c) general enthusiasm to enter into the community of the Law School.

The recipient of the Spirit Award cannot receive any other L.S.S. awards in the same year.

Any student in third year law shall be eligible for consideration for the award.
