

Notice of Use

By authority of the Royal Charter of 1841 of Queen's University, as amended and to comply with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act R.S.O. 1990 c.F.31 as amended, this application form collects personal information to facilitate the processing of your request for relief under the academic rules, regulations and policies of the Faculty of Law as set forth in the academic calendar published at <https://law.queensu.ca/programs/jd/student-support/academic-calendar>. The application form and the decision on the application is kept in your student file at the Faculty.

The Academic Standing and Policies Committee is struck as a standing committee of Faculty Board in accordance with the Faculty Board Constitution and rules. The members of the committee are two faculty members, one of whom chairs the Committee, the Assistant Dean of Students and two student members. The Manager of Education and Equity Services presents the applications to the Committee. All members of the Committee are under a duty to respect the privacy and confidentiality of applications not only in relation to the fact that there is an application before the committee and but also in relation to information revealed in the application.
