2020-2021 Canada Graduate Scholarship- Masters (CGS-M) Competition

JD students interested in pursuing an LLM should apply for the Canada Graduate Scholarship- Masters (CGS-M) competition (or should keep it in mind for a future year). These scholarships are for eligible undergraduate students who will be Master’s students in 2020-2021 in research-based programs. The objective of the CGS M Program is to help develop research skills and assist in the training of highly qualified personnel by supporting students who demonstrate a high standard of achievement in undergraduate and early graduate studies.

The online “Research Portal” application for the competition is now open and can be accessed from this website: http://www.nserc-crsng.gc.ca/Students-

Blazing Trails Mentorship Program - Call for Applications

Do you know a Canadian law student seeking to carve their own path to success?

We want them!

Level's 2019-2020 Blazing Trails Mentorship Program connects law students from across Canada with mentors for a series of four meetings throughout the academic year. Legal professionals from a diverse array of backgrounds provide unfiltered access to the ins and outs and benefits of a law degree in a variety of settings - charities, NGO's, law firms and government.

Through our mentorship program, students are connected with mentors with shared interests/backgrounds. Over the course of four 1 hour sessions (4 hours total), law students get to discuss a wide range of topics with their mentors. Topics can include:

- CV/Cover letter reviews
- Defining career goals
- Carving a path in law
- Overcoming challenges such as making authentic connections, building confidence and understanding sector-specific nuances
- Mental health and work/life balance

What have our participants said?

"The program taught me that it's ok not to have my ideal job in mind right away, it's ok to take the time to find what works for me. That is important for building my career path and reaching my goals."

"I found it helpful to share information with people across different provinces, as this information can be difficult to access in law school. I also felt fortunate to be assigned to a mentor who has a great deal of experience acting in her professional capacity in many different organizations, including government and non-profit areas. This helped me to understand the breadth of opportunities in a way I may not have otherwise been able to."

Interested?

Queen's Law Instagram

Send your pictures to instagram@queenslaw.ca to be included in our Instagram channel!
A reminder that the Queen’s Law official Instagram is happy to share your photos and stories! Send your (great) photos to instagram@queenslaw.ca to be vetted by our Instagram channel manager. Due to practical constraints, not all photos may make it to the channel, but all submissions are much appreciated -- photos of people, rather than places/buildings/objects, are especially preferred.

PETS OF QUEEN’S LAW!
Vote for Jersey

Jersey is a 2.5th year old Westipoo, who loves to spend her summer days sunbathing on the deck, which provides her with a prime opportunity to growl at the neighborhood children walking on the sidewalk below. Her favorite foods consist of blueberries, cucumbers, and toilet paper. I wish I could say that she was loving and sweet, but those are certainly words that are not compatible with her personality.

Vote for Tanney

This is Tanney! She’s a lovable yet mischievous Goldendoodle. Tanney spends her days hunting for and chewing up socks, asking for constant cuddles, and learning how to play fetch (she’s only 1 so she hasn't quite gotten the hang of it yet!) Her family adopted her this summer and she has received constant loving ever since. Her owner Brennan Caldwell (3L) misses her greatly while on exchange!

Submit your pets! Send a photo of your pet and up to 75 words of text to pets@queenslaw.ca. 3L Victoria Seo will be organizing weekly vote-offs in this very newsletter, and posting our winning pet to Instagram on Wednesdays with the runner-up on Saturdays. Come back every week to have your say in the Queen’s Law Pet of the Week!

*Pet photos may be cropped for Instagram, with a “Pets of Queen’s Law” frame.
