

Research Assistant Position

Posting date: January 24, 2022

Closing date: January 31, 2022

The Faculty of Law, Queen's University, requests applications from suitably qualified JD students interested in a research assistant position working for Professor Ben Ewing.

Description:

Professor Ewing is seeking a student or students to aid with research related to the philosophy of criminal law, criminal procedure, and sentencing.

Please be advised, due to COVID-19, the work for this position will be done remotely. The RA must have access to the internet and a computer that meets minimum requirements. All work can be completed during the regular 9-5 work week, but candidates can work outside of that time frame if they prefer.

Qualifications:

Successful applicants must have completed the first-year course in Criminal Law. Preference will be given to candidates with a background or demonstrated interest in both philosophy (moral, political, and/or legal) and criminal law (substantive law, procedure, and/or sentencing).

Length of contract and Hours per week: To be discussed.

Hourly Rate: $15.50/hour (+4% in lieu of vacation and/or benefits)

Application Procedure:

Interested applicants should submit the following materials:

- Cover email, stating your interest in the position and highlighting relevant experience.
- Complete and current curriculum vitae.
- Informal transcripts from both Queen's Law and your undergraduate program of study

Employment Equity and Accessibility Statement:

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous/Aboriginal people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during the application process, please contact Miranda Gavidia at hr.law@queensu.ca.

Please address applications to: Professor Ben Ewing

Submit applications through: Career Services Manager

