First Year
Building a foundation

First Year Mandatory Courses
- Introduction to Legal Skills
- Public Contracts
- Constitutional Law
- Criminal Law

First Year Summer Options
- Participate in the BISC Law Program
- Register in the Graduate Diploma in Legal Services Management
- Opt in to a Public Interest Internship
- Find legally related work or other employment

Other Mandatory Courses & Requirements
- Participate in Hicks Morley Labour & Employment Moot
- Volunteer for Queen’s Legal Aid, one of the Law Journals, or BICC
- Get a position with the Queen’s Law Student’s Society
- Participate in the BISC Law Program
- Register in the Graduate Diploma in Legal Services Management
- Opt in to a Public Interest Internship
- Find legally related work or other employment

School Year Options in First Year
- Business Associations
- Civil Procedure
- Substantial Term Paper, a practice skills course & an advocacy course
- Queen’s Law Clinics (Legal Aid, Business, Elder, Family & Prison)
- Clinical Externships with community legal aid clinics
- Federal Government Internships
- Feminist Legal Studies Workshop
- Queen’s Law Journal
- Canadian Labour and Employment Law Journal
- Competitive Mooting

Second Year
Exploring the options

Second Year Mandatory Courses
- Participate in the BISC Law Program
- Register in the Graduate Diploma in Legal Services Management
- Opt in to a Public Interest Internship
- Find legally related work or other employment

Advocacy & Negotiations
- Legal Ethics & Professionalism
- Labour & Employment Law
- Legal Theory
- International Commercial Law
- Constitutional Law
- Criminal Law
- Civil Procedure
- Procedural and Research Method
- Special Interest Law
- Tort Law
- Business Associations
- Civil Procedure
- Substantial Term Paper, a practice skills course & an advocacy course
- Queen’s Law Clinics (Legal Aid, Business, Elder, Family & Prison)
- Clinical Externships with community legal aid clinics
- Federal Government Internships
- Feminist Legal Studies Workshop
- Queen’s Law Journal
- Canadian Labour and Employment Law Journal
- Competitive Mooting

School Year Options in Upper Year
- Business Associations
- Civil Procedure
- Substantial Term Paper, a practice skills course & an advocacy course
- Queen’s Law Clinics (Legal Aid, Business, Elder, Family & Prison)
- Clinical Externships with community legal aid clinics
- Federal Government Internships
- Feminist Legal Studies Workshop
- Queen’s Law Journal
- Canadian Labour and Employment Law Journal
- Competitive Mooting

Second Year Summer Options
- Volunteer for Queen’s Legal Aid, one of the Law Journals, or BICC
- Get a position with the Queen’s Law Student’s Society
- Participate in the BISC Law Program
- Register in the Graduate Diploma in Legal Services Management
- Opt in to a Public Interest Internship
- Find legally related work or other employment

Second Year Elective Areas
- Advocacy & Negotiations
- Legal Ethics & Professionalism
- Labour & Employment Law
- Legal Theory
- International Commercial Law
- Constitutional Law
- Criminal Law
- Civil Procedure
- Procedural and Research Method
- Special Interest Law
- Tort Law

Third Year
Preparing for graduation

Third Year Mandatory Courses
- Participate in the BISC Law Program
- Register in the Graduate Diploma in Legal Services Management
- Opt in to a Public Interest Internship
- Find legally related work or other employment

Upper Year Elective Areas
- Queen’s Law Clinics (Legal Aid, Business, Elder, Family & Prison)
- Clinical Externships with community legal aid clinics
- Federal Government Internships
- Pre-legal Studies Workshop
- Queen’s Law Journal
- Canadian Labour and Employment Law Journal
- Competitive Mooting

Upper Year Summer Options
- Volunteer for Queen’s Legal Aid, one of the Law Journals, or BICC
- Get a position with the Queen’s Law Student’s Society
- Participate in the BISC Law Program
- Register in the Graduate Diploma in Legal Services Management
- Opt in to a Public Interest Internship
- Find legally related work or other employment

Third Year Summer Options
- Volunteer for Queen’s Legal Aid, one of the Law Journals, or BICC
- Get a position with the Queen’s Law Student’s Society
- Partake in Hicks Morley Labour & Employment Moot
- Volunteer for Queen’s Legal Aid, one of the Law Journals, or BICC
- Get a position with the Queen’s Law Student’s Society
- Participate in the BISC Law Program
- Register in the Graduate Diploma in Legal Services Management
- Opt in to a Public Interest Internship
- Find legally related work or other employment

Other Mandatory Courses & Requirements
- Take 14-17 elective upper year credits per term for a total of 59 upper year credits

There are a variety of course options that satisfy the following remaining degree requirements:
- Substantial Term Paper, a practice skills course & an advocacy course
- Queen’s Law Clinics (Legal Aid, Business, Elder, Family & Prison)
- Clinical Externships with community legal aid clinics
- Federal Government Internships
- Feminist Legal Studies Workshop
- Queen’s Law Journal
- Canadian Labour and Employment Law Journal
- Competitive Mooting