2019 MOOT COURT PROGRAM

Mooting Season is in full swing and you can find the latest news here (updated weekly)

Events

Visiting Speaker: Loretta Ross
Monday, February 25, 2019, 1:00 - 2:30pm, Room 201

Treaty Relations Commission of Manitoba

Justice McLeod's class on Critical Race Theory
Monday, February 25, 2019, 2:30 – 5:30, Room 300, Macdonald Hall

Ardi Imseis - Beyond Surveillance: Settler Colonialism and

the Fragmentation and Control of Occupied Palestine

Wednesday, February 27, 2019, 12:30 – 2 pm, Mackintosh Corry Hall D411

This lecture discusses some of the multifarious means by which Israel's "temporary" 51-year occupation of the OPT has been maintained. It demonstrates that far from mere surveillance, Israel's actions in the OPT are driven by ongoing settler colonialism, fragmentation and control.

Queen's Commerce Law Association

Wednesday, February 27, 2019 - 5:30, Room 201

QCLA is the first Commerce Society ratified association dedicated to educating students about law. QCLA works to foster interest in law and facilitate student connections with the Canadian legal community. On February 27, QCLA will be holding their annual LSAT Bootcamp. The LSAT Bootcamp is dedicated to providing students with in-depth insight on the law school application process and the LSAT specifically. This year, we will be having a faculty member from the Queen's Law School speak about the admissions process. Additionally, there will be several Queen's Law students who will be there to speak about their experiences and answer any questions people may have.

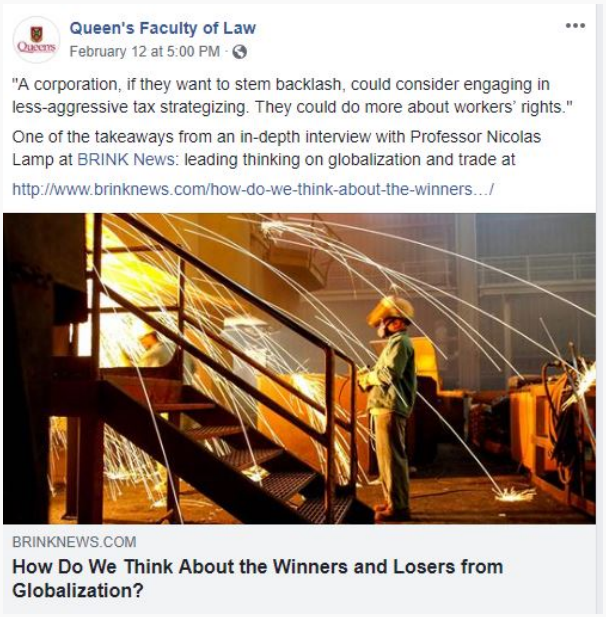
Reconciliation on Bay Street

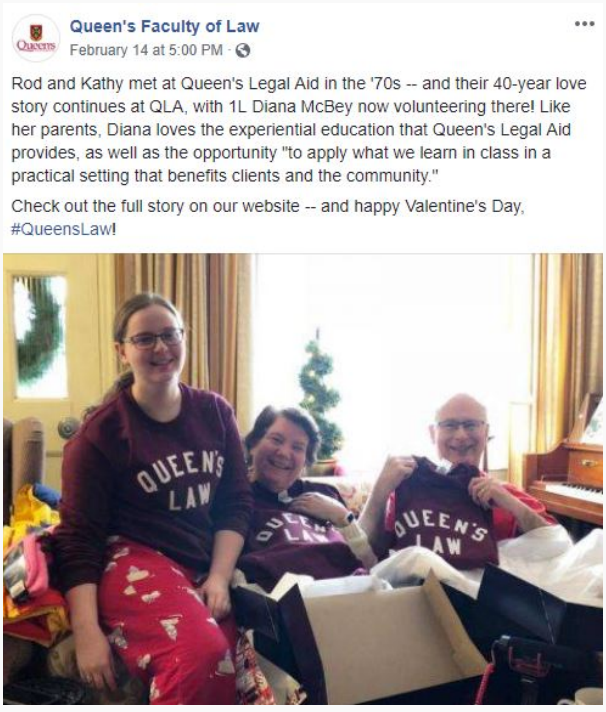
One of the takeaways from an in-depth interview with Professor Nicolas Lamp at BRINK News



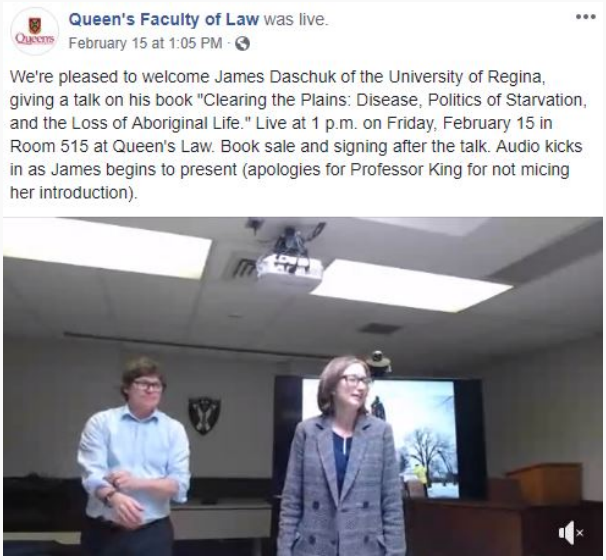
2L Spencer Abraham is featured on Tuesday Morning Skate from U SPORTS

Canada

Rod and Kathy met at Queen's Legal Aid in the '70s -- and their 40-year love story continues at QLA, with 1L Diana McBey now volunteering there!



James Daschuk of the University of Regina, giving a talk on his book "Clearing the Plains: Disease, Politics of Starvation, and the Loss of Aboriginal Life."



Queen's Law practiced its Charter right to rock out on February 8, and we have the gallery to prove it.

Catch some great discussion of international trade -- and Professor Nicolas Lamp's recent paper on the winners and losers of globalization -- at the Oral Argument podcast!

Congratulations to Queen's OutLaw on their February 8 "Talking Trans" panel, moderated by professor Lisa Kerr and featuring McGill's Florence Ashley, Queen's Lee Airton and Ottawa's Kyle Kirkup! Standing room only for a dynamic panel on gender-nonconforming identities and the law.
