ACADEMIC & LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

The Juris Doctor (JD) professional degree in law is taught at a level comparable to graduate studies. Canadian students are admitted to this program after completion of an undergraduate university degree. Therefore, incoming exchange students should be academically strong, in the upper-years of their legal studies, with a cumulative average of no less than B, (3.0 on a 4.0 grading scale), especially if they will be facing a change from civil law to common law studies and language barriers.

At Queen's, English is the language of instruction and communication, except for the language departments. Proficiency in English is a prerequisite for admission. Applicants whose native languages do not include English may be required to obtain satisfactory standing in an English Language Proficiency Test as part of the application process, and before final acceptance is granted.

Students planning to study in Canada for one term (less than six months), may study under temporary resident status as a visitor. For any period longer than six months (two terms), a study permit is required. Students from some countries require a temporary resident visa (entry visa) to be eligible to enter Canada. Most people that do not require a visa, require electronic Travel Authorization (eTA) to fly into Canada.
