

Strategic Framework engagement process

The Faculty's Strategic Framework is a roadmap to help guide our decisions and actions, and inspire the very best in our students, faculty, staff, alumni and partners. We thank the members of the Queen's Law community who participated in the consultation process by sharing their perspectives and insights and helping us to arrive at a common vision for the future of our school.

The development of the Framework has been informed by three distinct phases:

Discovery Phase

Launch

September 2020
Discussion paper launched

October 2020
Completion of online survey

November 2020
Planning sessions with senior administration

December 2020
Targeted planning sessions with Faculty/department leads

December 2020
Targeted planning sessions with priority working groups/committees

Engagement Phase

January 2021
Virtual drop-in sessions with Faculty, staff and students by topic

February 2021
Virtual drop-in sessions with Faculty, staff and students by topic

February 2021
Targeted alumni meetings via Zoom

February 2021
Town Hall Forum

Development and Execution Phase

April 2021
Feedback analysis; first draft of report for review

May 2021
Faculty Board review

June 2021
Release Strategic Framework 2021-2026

Release