

Teaching Assistant Positions – Winter 2026

Posting date: December 3, 2025

Closing dates: December 17, 2025

The Faculty of Law, Queen's University, requests applications from suitably qualified graduates or JD students interested in a teaching assistant position for the following online course in the Winter 2026 term:

LAW 709 Environmental Law (Online):

This course provides students with a comprehensive overview of environmental law, regulation, and policy at the provincial and federal levels in Canada. Students will examine how governments, industry, landowners and the public have attempted to prevent, minimize or mitigate environmental degradation and natural resource depletion.

Topics covered in the course modules include air and water pollution; environmental litigation; toxic chemicals and pesticides; environmental assessment; climate change; biodiversity conservation; species at risk; parks and protected areas; land use planning; non-regulatory approaches; and Indigenous rights.

Qualifications:

Successful applicants will be expected to have expertise, or at least demonstrated interest, in the field relevant to the course. Preference will be given to candidates with experience as teaching assistants or who otherwise demonstrate the teaching or coaching and communication skills required, and who have excellent interpersonal skills. Applicants must be comfortable working in a team environment to consistently implement the course objectives and provide a high quality and engaged online learning experience.

Candidates must be prepared to work outside the regular 9:00 am – 5:00 pm work week, and have access to the internet and a computer that meets minimum requirements as outlined under the Course Requirements section. Experience with learning management systems (e.g. OnQ) and video-conferencing software (e.g. Zoom) would be an asset.

Application Procedure:

Applications must include a complete and current curriculum vitae, a cover letter outlining relevant experience, the names and contact details of two referees who may be contacted, and any other relevant materials the applicant wishes to submit for consideration.

Please indicate if there is a tutorial time you are not available for in your cover letter. Priority will be given to applicants who are available for all tutorial time slots.

Please submit your application prior to the application deadline via Interfolio at the following link:

Employment Equity

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

Accessibility Statement

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during the recruitment process, please contact Diana Turner-Oke, Human Resources and Staffing Officer, at lawpositions@queensu.ca.
