

Research Assistant Positions

Posting date: April 24, 2024

Closing date: April 30, 2024

The Faculty of Law, Queen's University, requests applications from suitably qualified JD students interested in a Research Assistant ("RA") position working with Professors King and Nash (Emory).

Description:

Professors Alyssa King and Jonathan Nash (Emory) are seeking a JD student summer research assistant to work on a paper evaluating the prospects of climate change litigation in the US and Canada. If you have any questions about the work involved, please contact Professor King at alyssa.king@queensu.ca.

Qualifications:

This project would be an especially good fit for JD students interested in comparative law, environmental law, and BC litigation.

The work can be done remotely and with a flexible schedule. RAs must have access to high-speed internet and a computer that meets minimum requirements.

Length of contract: The student will work a total of 50 hours over the summer (These hours can be done all at once or spread through the summer).

Hourly Rate: $18.50/hour (+4% in lieu of vacation)

Application Procedure

Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity, and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous/Aboriginal people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

Interested applicants should submit the following materials:

- (1) a short statement (1-2 paragraphs) indicating your interests and experience related to the research
- (2) a resume
- (3) an informal transcript from Queen's Law. Transcripts can be unofficial (e.g. SOLUS pdf, etc.)

Professor King will follow up with applicants directly.

Please address applications to:

Diana Turner-Oke, Human Resources and Staffing Officer

Email: lawpositions@queensu.ca

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during the application process, please contact Diana Turner-Oke.
